A Word from Liberty
Reading The Message is like I'm talking with my best friend, God. Psalm 51:16-17 tells me how God feels about my attempts to surrender:

"(16)Going through the motions doesn't please you, a flawless performance is nothing to you. (17)I learned God-worship when my pride was shattered. Heart-shattered lives ready for love don't for a moment escape God's notice."

If I'm sort of floundering, I love to read God's words in Psalm 50:14-15:

"(14)Spread for me a banquet of praise, serve High God a feast of kept promises, (15)and call for help when you're in trouble—I'll help you, and you'll honor me."

If I'm down, I identify with David in Psalm 42:5-6:

"(5)Why are you down in the dumps, dear soul? Why are you crying the blues? Fix my eyes on God—soon I'll be praising again. He puts a smile on my face. He's my God. (6)When my soul is in the dumps, I rehearse everything I know of you, From Jordan depths to Hermon heights, including Mount Mizar."

Psalm 40:6-8 reminds how He only desires love from me:

"(6)Doing something for you, bringing something to you—that's not what you're after. Being religious, acting pious—that's not what you're asking for. You've opened my ears so I can listen. (7) So I answered, 'I'm coming. I read in your letter what you wrote about me, (8)And I'm coming to the party you're throwing for me.' That's when God's Word entered my life, became part of my very being."

Psalm 36:5-10 helps me remember just how incredible and wonderful God is!

"(5)God's love is meteoric, his loyalty astronomic, (6)His purpose titanic, his verdicts oceanic. Yet in his largeness nothing gets lost; not a man, not a mouse, slips through the cracks. (7)How exquisite your love, O God! How eager we are to run under your wings, (8)to eat our fill at the banquet you spread as you fill our tankards with Eden spring water. (9)You're a fountain of cascading light, and you open our eyes to light. (10)Keep on loving your friends; do your work in welcoming hearts."

Psalm 33:12-19 reminds me that He might be running the world, but He is focused on the one looking for His love:

"(12)Blessed is the country with GOD for God; blessed are the people he's put in his will. (13)From high in the skies GOD looks around, he sees all Adam's brood. (14)From where he sits he overlooks all us earth-dwellers. (15)He has shaped each person in turn; now he watches everything we do. (16)No king succeeds with a big army alone, no warrior wins by brute strength. (17)Horsepower is not the answer; no one gets by on muscle alone. (18)Watch this: God's eye is on those who respect him, the ones who are looking for his love. (19)He's ready to come to their rescue in bad times; in lean times he keeps body and soul together."

Thank you, Lord, for all of your love notes to me that remind me I'm never alone, never out of your sight.

Cheryl Weeks, LSM Certified Teacher in Tasmania

As a new widow, I became very depressed at Christmas in 2004. A friend lent me Shattering Your Strongholds by Liberty Savard and I couldn’t put it down. When I came to the part about releasing the pain of past memories to God’s truth and healing, I prayed the simple prayer written there. I didn’t feel anything at the time, but the next day I felt as though someone had switched a light on in me. I had my joy back! The memories weren’t painful anymore and I could remember the past with joy.

All through the Christmas holiday season, I waited for the joy to wear off but it didn’t and it still hasn’t today! I have tested myself by going places where my husband and I used to go and listening to music we used to listen to together. God has set me free from the pain and grief associated with my husband’s death and three years later, I am still walking in that freedom.

Often Christians pray and pray but the root cause of their pain is never dealt with giving them just “temporary” victories. Liberty Savard’s Keys of the Kingdom/Unsundered Soul ministry message teaches people how to receive God’s healing, and then use that healing to walk into His will and purpose for their lives. I wanted to learn all I could about this message.

Only God could arrange the finances for me to travel halfway around the world to attend Liberty’s training in California in February of 2006. Since then my life has been going full speed ahead and He has used me in ways I never believed were possible. I have seen so many people released from things they have struggled with for years. It is such a joy to be involved in this ministry.

I am now so aware that God is just waiting to give us everything we need to be over comers if we will take down our self-protective stronghold walls that are keeping Him from doing that. He won’t take them down, He asks US to do it. (2 Corinthians 10:4-5) and He gives us the Keys of the Kingdom to show us how (Matthew 16:19).

Robert Little, LSM Certified Teacher Level I and II from Australia (now in Vacaville, California US)

I lived in Australia until I was 18, and then moved to US in 1975 where I got saved. I later went into the ministry. When my wife, Chrystal, began to struggle with deep anger in 1996, she found Liberty’s Shattering Your Strongholds and spent three days locked in a room with it. Her life has never been the same. Wanting to know what she was so engrossed in, I decided to check it out.

I knew Chrystal had a lot of problems, but I didn’t! I was in the ministry. I felt that it just didn’t matter that people had told me for years that I was a loser—and that I had experienced other hard things that I had just buried. My wife called me “Mr. Justification” as I continued to justify my junk. “To help Chrystal,” I began reading Liberty’s books and even signed up for her first Teachers’/Believers’ Level I Training School. I was truly shocked to find out that I was filled a lot of junk!

I have always said that this training is the best I have ever been to. I am now teaching several groups from Liberty’s Shattering Your Strongholds, Breaking the Power, and Producing the Promise. People are getting set free left and right! I also recently completed a study with 80 men and the breakthroughs were outstanding. This is a message that gets rid of the junk and opens up wounded, damaged souls to receive renewal from God. I encourage anyone who can to attend one of the schools in Tasmania in May. You’ll never be the same.

Jenny Johnston, LSM Certified Teacher in Australia

It has been an exciting journey as the Keys of the Kingdom continue to transform me and I step into God’s destiny plans for my life. I began reading Shattering Your Strongholds after praying that God would guide me to what I needed at the time. I quickly purchased Breaking the Power and Producing the Promise and then went to Liberty's website where I saw her teachers' training schools. I asked God to open doors if this was His will. I have always trained the people I work with and taught small groups as a folk art instructor, so the thought of teaching was exciting. I just didn't know where or when.

Traveling alone for the first time in my life, I set off for California in July 2006 for a week of teaching by Mother Eagle Liberty. This was a time of challenge, restoration, and the birthing of what is happening now as I run three Shattering Your Strongholds groups each week. My original group is studying Producing the Promise and I love seeing what God is doing as we clear out the baggage to make room for His freedom.

Liberty's books and her training helped me shed many layers of garbage that had stopped me from moving forward for the Lord. As walls keep coming down, my confidence is increasing and I find that following Jesus is getting more exciting each day. I feel honored that God has allowed me to partner with Him and Liberty in this way. Watching Christians being set free as God transforms them is so exciting!

I truly recommend going to one of Liberty's schools in Tasmania if you can—you will be amazed at what God does for and through you! If you really have to miss one of the schools, maybe we can meet at the Melbourne conference and have coffee. Blessings, Jenny Johnston, LSM Certified Teacher (jenny.j2@optusnet.com.au)

LSM Long Distance Training by DVD

All of the 16 LSM Long Distance Teachers'/Believers' Training DVDs are filmed. I had a great time doing this, but I am anxiously waiting to review them (just got them). If my eyes are crossed, my wrinkles look too bad, or I look like I've just eaten a bug, then I'll have to pull the plug and leave town! Kidding!! But I am having to bind my mind to the mind of Christ and loose vanity thoughts!

I'm working hard on fresh new manuals to accompany these DVD teachings that will include new information that is not in my books. I will be mentoring Certified Teachers as long as they are teaching the message they learn from this training. The registration information, final prices, and different ways to order the Long Distance Training is on our website. If you wish to have this information by fax or snail mail, contact us from the letterhead information. This is your opportunity to become a LSM Certified Teacher right in your own home, regardless of what country you are in, at your own pace. Such a deal!

Liberty Savard's Beginners' Writing School in Sacramento CA - September 19-22, 2007

Once Australia is wrapped up and flying on its own, we're flying full speed into final plans for our Writing Conference. I will be teaching on why you should want to write for the Kingdom, how you can effectively change how you think and act and then use it in your writing, and what I (as a professional editor) look for in manuscripts. I may submit students' manuscripts that meet this criteria to my publisher for consideration. Read more about me on my website: www.libertysavard.com. Here are our other professional speakers:

NANCY RUE has written and published over eighty books for children, teens, and adults, and has received numerous honors and awards for her writing.

Read more about Nancy Rue on her website at www.nancyrue.com.

LISA CRAYTON is an internationally published author, award-winning freelance publisher, non-fiction writer, and the publisher of www.SpiritLedWriter.com.

Read more about Lisa on her website: www.lisacrayton.com.

Registration for these three and a half days of powerful teaching, writing exercises, and critiquing of your work will be only $275.00. This includes a one-on-one, 10-15 minute meeting about your writing. For an additional $65, you can submit a synopsis of any completed or near-completed manuscript ahead of time for a personal critique and in-depth meeting with one of the speakers.

The conference will be at the Red Lion Hotel Sacramento (916-922-8041)—kings, queens, or two double beds are just $90 (plus tax and tip) per room per night (up to 4 people may share a room!). Ask for the Liberty Savard Writing School special. The Sacramento Metropolitan airport has a shuttle that comes right to the hotel.

LSM Teachers' Training LEVEL II Sacramento CA Red Lion Hotel Sacramento– Sept. 26-29, 2007

As some LSM Teachers may be interested in writing as well, we have scheduled the Liberty Savard Writing School and the LEVEL II Teachers' conferences back to back. Those attending the Writing Conference will receive 50% off the Teachers' Training LEVEL II registration if they register for both.

Special sightseeing trips will be planned over the weekend between the two conferences. During the conference, Liberty will host times of fellowship and refreshments in her suite of approximately eight attendees at a time. This LSM LEVEL II Training will be directed towards expanding new revelations of the Keys of the Kingdom while fine tuning the understanding of LSM students from previous LEVEL I and II schools. Each student should be prepared to teach a short message on their unique experience with the Keys of the Kingdom/ Unsundered Soul. The registration fee is $275.00 for three and a half days of fun, teaching, sharing, and dramatic presentations. Guess WHO the drama "stars" will be.

Spurgeon's Daily Devotional

Perhaps you say, "I cannot love my neighbors, because for all I do, they return ingratitude and contempt." So much the more room for the heroism of love. Wouldst thou be a feather-bed warrior instead of bearing the rough fight of love? He who dares the most shall win the most; and if rough be thy path of love, tread it boldly, still loving thy neighbors through thick and thin...if they be hard to please, seek not to please them, but to please thy Master; and remember if they spurn thy love, thy Master hath not spurned it, and thy deed is as acceptable to Him as if it had been acceptable to them. Love thy neighbor, for in so doing thou art following the footsteps of Christ.

Questions and Answers

Question: I just purchased Shattering Your Strongholds and am wondering whether the principles of binding and loosing could be prayed for phobias. I have a strong fear of mice and rats; and the latest sightings of mice at my workplace (a school) have maximized these fears and nearly paralyzed me. Please advise. Randi

Answer: These principles are helpful in overcoming phobic thinking. The soul is made up of the mind, the will, and the emotions. In phobic thinking, the mind and the emotions strengthen this type of fearful thinking which will increase if left unchallenged. These prayers can begin stabilizing your soul's irrational reactions.

When you loose (smash, crush, and destroy) wrong patterns of thinking and wrong emotional reactions, you begin to break up your overreactions. Pray the prayers loosing wrong emotional reactions to other issues that seem to impair you, too, and begin restructuring your thought processes on other issues that impact you more than they should. Every time you feel that phobic thinking arising, stop and bind your mind to the mind of Christ and your emotions to the healing balance and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Loose wrong patterns of thinking and irrational emotional reactions and ask the Lord for peace. Even if you have to repeat this three or four times each time it happens, you will begin to see changes. Liberty

Question: We had a visiting preacher today that everyone in my church adores. I struggled with thinking that he was completely full of himself. Are my binding and loosing prayers making me more aware when I see an unsundered soul, or am I guilty of the same thing? I am confused at my reaction to him because it is so opposite of everyone else's reaction. Jerry

Answer: Jerry: I'm not sure whether you are more discerning because of the prayers, but there is a chance this is true. There is also a chance that God is showing you something in yourself. When people used to really bug me in the past, I later realized that they were like me except they were succeeding at something that I wasn't. That made me both critical and intolerant of them.

Show mercy and grace to those who try to minister in ways that are uncomfortable to you. We all need to be more tolerant when people are trying to minister the pure Word. Was he lifting up Jesus, was he breaking the Word of God purely, and was he trying to help people to change their lives? If you can honestly answer yes to at least one of those questions, then you have to wonder about your reaction. Either way, it's time to get back to praying the binding and loosing prayers. Hope this helps, Liberty

Question: Your teaching on binding and loosing and your prayers truly are gifts of God. I have just offered a course on Intercessory Prayer at our church where I mentioned your prayers and explained them. All in attendance would love to have a copy of the prayers. I explained that they could easily purchase the book, but they pressed me to ask if you would permit me to type out the prayers so they could begin to pray this way as soon as possible. I would not do so without your express permission. Donella

Answer: This is something I do not recommend. When people begin to pray these prayers, the "status quo" of their lives start shaking. Old foundations start crumbling, old defenses start falling, and old beliefs begin to shatter. All of this is good IF YOU KNOW what is happening. Otherwise, the resulting shaking can be confusing and appear to be negative if the only thing you know is that the prayers seem to cause it—even if it is exactly what God wants, a fresh start and a new foundation.

People who did not understand the purest purpose of these prayers (to empty out baggage and wrong thinking from their unsundered souls and to surrender to God's will) began to use them for all kinds of wrong things which gives the enemy open doors to further confuse them.

Someone once took just the prayers to a teenager in jail for drunk driving. When the youth pastor called on him, the teen said, “Don’t worry, I’ve got these prayers and I’ve bound the judge to my will. He has to let me off now.”

People who just want the quick “fix,” praying the prayers with no understanding, aren’t always interested in a genuine overhaul of their souls even though such renewal is good. I won’t give you my permission to do this, but I won’t ask you not to give out the prayers like you requested. You be the judge. Liberty Savard

Question: I asked you to help me understand why God has not given me a mate. You said to read your Difficult Issues Article on not finding a mate; I did. I just don’t feel this answer is for me. I see the concept of it, but it does not have anything to do with my situation. Betty

Answer: Betty, it does apply to you. And what I’m going to tell you now applies to all MEN, WOMEN, AND YOUNG PEOPLE! If God knew you were ready for what you are asking for and you wouldn’t get hurt by having it, He would be moving you towards it.

You are not ready for a serious relationship and, therefore, God may be protecting you from devastating emotional damage. A marriage, any marriage, is NOT better than being alone. If you were to extend your heart to someone who would take advantage of your love and use you, you could be deeply hurt. With your unmet needs, it would be easy for someone to take advantage of you. Also, the one that God may have chosen for you to marry may not yet be healed and ready for a good relationship. God may be protecting both of you.

Don’t blame God for protecting you—you have unmet needs and unhealed hurts that no man could meet and fix. God just doesn’t want you to get terribly hurt and feel rejected again. I’m sorry if this appears blunt, but I get hundreds of letters from men and women in exactly the same frame of mind as you who are “blaming God.”

It is hard to get some people to recognize that God wants to protect them until they let Him heal them. Please bind your mind to the mind of Christ and loose all stronghold thinking you have about that article not “being for you,” and read it again with an open mind. Liberty

Betty’s Response: Well, since you put it like that, I can relate. I never thought about God protecting me by not leading me to a relationship right now. Thanks for responding and understanding, and I will read over that excerpt again. You said you can tell by my e-mail that I am not ready for a serious relationship yet. What I can do to change that? I know you are a very busy woman of God and to take time to correspond like you did shows your heart. I honestly did not expect to hear from you, but now I will get back to the prayers. Be blessed, Betty Liberty’s Response: I’m very impressed with your response. When I said that you were not ready for a serious relationship right now, I meant that you still need to open up your soul and let God into your unmet needs, unhealed hurts, and unresolved issues. You can do this by staying in the Word, praying the binding and loosing prayers, and realigning your relationship with God.

Tell Him that you have felt abandoned by Him and that you have been feeling that He didn’t care. Then agree with Him that He knows what is best and that you believe He really does want to heal you and meet your deepest needs so you can love others with no strings attached. You’ll just be a blessing to those around you. Then ask God to forgive you for wrong feelings and accusations against Him for not giving what you wanted. Tell Him that you now see He has been giving you what you needed—time to heal and to become more whole. He will forgive and you can begin to cooperate with Him.

Pray the prayers to dismantle your soul’s defense mechanisms, its deceptions, its denial, and its stronghold thinking. Stronghold thinking is a mental trap that allows you to believe that you are right and you shouldn’t have to, won’t, or can’t change. Stronghold thinking occurs whenever God (or someone like me) touches something that is painful and disappointing and you don’t want to see how you are blocking God from healing that pain. Everyone has some stronghold thinking, MEN, WOMEN, AND YOUNG PEOPLE. Strongholds are built out of rationalizations, justifications, arguments, reasonings, denial, and defensiveness used to protect what you’ve allowed your soul to set up as its truth:

- You rationalize how you’ve asked God for something He hasn’t given you and that means He doesn’t care.
- You justify this conclusion because other people have not done something for you and they didn’t care, either.
- You argue that you know you are right.
- You reason that if God just sent you what you asked for, then you would know He cared.
- You deny the possibility that He might be protecting you by keeping this from happening.
- You get defensive about your conclusions.

You were using rationalizations, justifications, arguments, reasoning, denial, and defensiveness to “prove” that you were right and God had let you down. This created stronghold thinking. God has told us tear down our strongholds and everything high thing that would exalt itself against knowing Him. This is how you do it:

- Loose your rationalizations about why you think God doesn’t care.

- Loose your justifications about how you are right because others have done the same thing to you.
- Loose your arguments that you must be right because of your past experiences.
- Loose your denial that God might be protecting you.
- Loose your defensiveness about being challenged over your conclusions about the above.

Don't forget to keep binding your will to His will and your mind to the mind of Christ and your emotions to the healing balance of the Holy Spirit. This steadies and stabilizes you and helps you cooperate with God to receive healing and readiness for the next step of your destiny. God bless, Liberty

Question: Liberty: How come you are not on television like Joyce Meyers? You should have a ministry on television because what you are teaching is so important and it is not being taught in other ministries. Since I have started praying the binding and loosing prayers, stuff has started moving that has not moved for years! Thanks, Bonnie

Answer: Actually, Bonnie, I am on television every week. I'm on the God TV channel on Direct TV every Friday at 12:00 noon (EST, I believe). I don't have Direct TV, so I completely sure about the time zone. Thanks for asking and for your kind words. Liberty

Question: I have all your books and your teachings have changed my life. I re-read them often and refer to them for many of the problems we seem to go through as Christians in this day and age. In The Unsundered Soul, during your e-mail correspondence with Rosanne, there seems to be little question that Sharon is with the Lord. A friend of mine lost somebody close to them to suicide recently, and as another friend and I discussed the issue, it turned into a huge argument.

She is of the opinion that suicide is the ultimate sin and as that person committed murder to self and never repented, it is obvious he or she will go to hell. She says that I have no right to claim differently as a person with suicide tendencies might hear me and assume that by committing suicide they can escape this world and be with the Lord. Then she said that if they do, I will have their blood on my hands. This is very upsetting to me. How can we ever comfort loved ones of suicide victims if we are to believe their loved ones will all go to hell? John

Answer: John, no one knows what transpires in the final second of a person's life who commits suicide. God can accomplish more in that last second than we can accomplish in years. No one can authoritatively know that a person committing suicide did not repent in that final moment, or that the person did not find some resolution with God in that final second for what they did.

To say that you have no right to claim differently because "a person with suicide tendencies might hear you and assume that by committing suicide they can escape this world and be with the Lord because, if they do, you will have blood on your hands" is both legalistic and wrong. If you say that God will forgive someone of murder, does that mean that if a person heard you and then goes out and commits a murder, you have blood on your hands? If you say that God will forgive someone who steals, does that mean that if a person hears you and goes out and steals, you are responsible? Does that mean if you say that God will forgive divorce and someone then gets divorced, that the divorce is your fault? No, it does not.

Once a person has so sunk into depression and despair that they have decided to take their own life, they are more than likely past considering whether or not to do it because God might not forgive them. This is where we can all hope for His grace and mercy to meet them where they are before they actually die, even if it is only for a half second.

People who commit suicide have generally been thinking about doing it for a long time. You do not cause them to do it and thereby become responsible. Having said that, it is prudent to be wise and be careful by what you do say to people who are looking for that final excuse to do what they have already chosen to do.

If you are aware that a person is looking for an excuse to act out a pending decision they have already made, then you would be wise to hold your tongue and begin to pray earnestly for that person. Notice that I said this about a pending action that a person can still choose to avoid. It is a dangerous things to assume forgiveness will be theirs if they choose to go ahead and commit a seriously wrong act that is presumptive and takes God's grace, mercy, and forgiveness for granted. God can give you the wisdom and the discernment to recognize when this is something a person is considering. I hope this helps, Liberty

Question: I recently had an unusual dream. As I had bound my mind to Christ so that my dreams would only be from the Lord, what is the best way for me to verify that this particular dream was from the Lord? Or, should I just believe it is so? Your discernment on this would be of great assistance. Pat

Answer: I'm not sure that binding your mind to the mind of Christ is a guarantee that whatever you dream is from Him. You are going to have to keep binding your mind to the mind of Christ, loosing soulish input, and trust He will reveal this answer to you. The unsundered soul is very powerful and will attempt to direct you through dreams.

Your unsundered soul cannot be trusted to put forth good ideas through dreams because it basically rejects God's input into its healing processes, its decisions, and its motivations. Keep asking God if it was Him or your soul's unmet needs, unhealed hurts, or unresolved issues that prompted your dream. He is the only one who really knows, and He is willing to tell you if you truly want the truth. Liberty

Testimony: I recently got a copy of The Unsundered Soul. The truth revealed in this book has been an answer to prayer. I was born into a Christian home that lacked love and understanding of God's principals. The churches I was brought up in were full of DOs and DON'Ts. When I was seven, a church-going neighbor began molesting me for nearly three years. At the age of 15, a friend's brother raped me. At that time, I pushed God completely out of my life because I felt He could not be trusted.

In 2000, after various suicide attempts, I got down on my knees and asked God to forgive me and heal me from this terrible emotional pain. I began learning how to love my heavenly Father, but I was still going through the struggles many Christians do. One minute I was up and praising the Lord and the next minute I was feeling like I was just waiting for death so it could all be over.

I recently started reading The Unsundered Soul and it has been a blessing. I have begun to understand some of the causes of the struggle I have been going through. I was specially touched by the story of Rosanne and her daughter Sharon. I encourage her to continue sharing her story because more people need to hear what she has to say. My soul is really putting up a battle. But now that I have the Keys of the Kingdom to set me free, I don't have to be afraid anymore. God bless you and please continue to spread the news of this wonderful message. Dot

Testimony: My husband and I have relocated back to the States after living in his native Argentina for over 30 years. Transition is tough! For the past 15 years I have been able to see, be a part of, and teach in the moving of God in Latin America and Mexico. Now I'm sharing my husband's retirement, getting situated, adjusting to my "new" country, finding a job again, and I am overwhelmed. But I am also overwhelmed with gratitude and excitement after reading Breaking the Power and BEYOND Shattered Strongholds. I realize God still wants me on the cutting edge of His moving! Bless you and thank you for your awesome ministry! Joanie

Testimony: Just wanted to thank you so very much for your teaching. I was in San Saba TX this past weekend and was so very blessed by your ministry to us there. I received one of your books from a friend some time back and I was touched by your writing and truth. When I came to San Saba, I was thrilled at what I heard and learned, and now I hope to learn more. Thank you so much for your ministry. I am taking the books I bought from your book table to my pastor. I so hope to meet you again in Texas. God bless and thank you. Linda Testimony: Liberty: We must be working off the same page at the moment. The last two times I have spoken at the Centre here in England, it was to emphasize that everything has to be based on our personal relationship with Father—that loving is giving and faith is receiving. Therefore loving is greater than faith, but loving together with faith beats all barriers. Anyway I knew I had to tackle the subject again this week. Then in came your newsletter and I was able to read it out verbatim so that it was not coming from me, but from the "famous Liberty Savard." Of course I gave you the acknowledgements—I even tried to imitate your voice as I could just imagine you saying it. So, many thanks.

I was in Madagascar in April 2006 to do a mission. I took your new book BEYOND Shattered Strongholds with me as my reading for the trip. I spent the next three weeks doing stronghold work on areas that I thought were long gone; all my strongholds of prejudice against anyone or anything that was not done in the manner that I would have it done rose up and confronted me. I was worn out by the time I got back (not from the mission work which was very exciting and successful) from having to deal with the problem of myself! Anglican Pastor Randy

Who and What is LIBERTY SAVARD MINISTRIES?

Reverend Liberty S. Savard, President of Liberty Savard Ministries, Inc. (a non-profit corporation), was born again in 1972. She is an ordained minister with credentials from the Evangelical Church Alliance (P.O. Box 9, Bradley, Illinois 60915). Rev. Savard has served as a singles director, associate pastor, speaker, and Bible teacher. She is the author of Shattering Your Strongholds (1993 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Breaking the Power (1997 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Producing the Promise (1999 Bridge-Logos Pub.), and several mini-books and workbooks. With The Unsundered Soul (2002 Bridge-Logos Pub.), Apples of Gold in Baskets of Silver (2003 Bridge-Logos Pub.), and BEYOND Shattered Strongholds (2005 Bridge-Logos Pub.), she now has 14 books in print around the world.

This ministry believes the Scriptures are inspired of God, infallible, and fully authoritative for Christian faith and conduct. Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born of a virgin, lived a sinless life on Earth, died on the cross in a substitutionary work of redemption for mankind, rose again and now sits at the right hand of the Father. Through Christ's shed blood and renewal of the Holy Ghost, justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God with absolute hope of eternal life.

This ministry teaches Christians how to cause their unsundered souls (old natures) to surrender to the will and purposes of God. LSM also teaches Christians how to loose emotional baggage from their souls to create room within themselves to receive all God has promised to them. This allows believers to fulfill their destinies while walking in knowledge and power to bring glory and honor to God the Father! This ministry also teaches God's people how to pray with the Keys of the Kingdom (Matthew 16:19) to impact things on earth so they come into alignment with God's already established will in heaven. This ministry is also dedicated to training Christians how to pray purely without "want lists" and instruction manuals for God (so He will know how best to answer their prayers!). Effective prayers with pure motives declare that God's will shall be done on Earth as He has so set it in heaven.
